Seung S. Gwon MD, Inc.
El Centro, CA

SAGES Member Spotlight Dr. Seung Gwon

Community practice surgeon Dr. Seung Gwon, who owns her solo practice in El Centro, Calif., says she always knew she “wanted a lot of autonomy” as a physician.

A California native, Dr. Gwon graduated from the Chicago Medical School and completed her residency at Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital. She joined SAGES in 2011, after close friend and SAGES member Dr. Gretchen Purcell-Jackson asked her to sit on a panel discussing social media use among physicians.

Initially a member of the Educational Resources Committee, Dr. Gwon was encouraged by Dr. Purcell-Jackson to join the Community Practice committee as a way to connect with others in private practice.
