SAGES Stories Features Dr. Mary Hawm

Dr. Mary Hawm, Stanford University Chair of Surgery and Director of the American Board of Surgery, is this month's featured guest on SAGES Stories. The Michigan native and University of Michigan alumnus (Go Blue) covers her migration to the West Coast, passion for research and technology's role in training surgeons, along with the importance of supporting fellow surgeons and colleagues. SAGES Member Spotlight
Dr. Vahagn Nikolian

Vahagn Nikolian, MD
Hernia and Abdominal Wall Center
Department of Surgery
Oregon Health and Science University

Dr. Vahagn Nikolian says "It was an early career goal to join and be involved with a society that represents such a diverse group of surgeons." He adds that while, as a resident, he didn't have much time to be involved with SAGES, he always enjoyed the quality of the conferences, didactics, operative technique videos, and other content that was available via open access.

Dr. Nikolian, who'll be attending the Montreal meeting—like so many others—points to his fellow members as the key to SAGES. "I've enjoyed going to the meetings and learning from surgeons in all types of practices, being exposed to new techniques and concepts."

SAGES Guidelines Committee News - Seeking Patient Partners

The SAGES Guidelines Committee is seeking to strengthen our guidelines by including the valuable insights and perspectives of patients. If you know of a patient who may be interested in our Patient Partner program, share this link which provides more information and a sign up form: <https://www.sages.org/patient-engagement/>. Thank you for assisting in this exciting endeavor.

A link to the Patient Partner form is also available on the Healthy Sooner page.
